

2019 ANI GOLDRICK SEMINAR

Maritime Trade and its Implications for Australia's Defence

Wednesday 18 September 2019

Co-convened with the Royal Australian Navy, the Australian Centre for the Study of Armed Conflict and Society, and the Submarine Institute Australia

The 2019 ANI Goldrick Seminar will discuss defence issues associated with the maintenance of Australia's maritime trade. Speakers will be drawn from senior levels of Defence, academia and industry. As in previous years, the theme - Maritime Trade and its Implications for Australia's Defence - was selected by the Chief of Navy; an outcomes report will be provided to the Chief of Navy and it is anticipated that the proceedings will be subsequently published by ACSACS.

The 2019 Goldrick Seminar will comprise three sessions covering the Contemporary Environment, Protecting Maritime Trade and Policy implications.

SPEAKERS:

The seminar will feature eminent speakers from senior levels of Defence, industry and academia, including:

- Professor Rob McLaughlin, Director, Australian Centre for the Study of Armed Conflict and Society
- Vice Admiral Paul Maddison (Ret'd), Director, UNSW Defence Research Institute
- Vice Admiral Michael Noonan, AO, RAN, Chief of Navy
- Lieutenant Commander Mark Bailey, RAN
- Air Vice Marshall John Blackburn (Ret'd)
- Mr Rod Nairn AM, CEO Australian Shipping Limited
- Ms Miseje De Vogel, Australian War Memorial
- Commodore Matt Buckley, CSC, RAN
- Captain Philippe Petitdidier, Defence Attaché, Embassy of France in Australia
- Commodore Brett Sonter, RAN, Director General Military Strategy
- Professor Michael Wesley, Professor of International Affairs and Dean of the College of Asia and the Pacific, ANU
- Dr Pichamon Yeophantong, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, UNSW Canberra
