

Navy History Tours and Cruises

Ideal for groups, the Society's tours and cruises led by experienced guides bring Australia's rich naval history to life as you journey through time to understand the Navy. You will learn how the Navy has been an integral part of Sydney since 1788, how it has operated and how it has been supported. Hear little known and remarkable stories about naval activities in war and peace told from scenic locations around the Harbour.

Booking Naval Historical Society Tours

Submarines in Sydney: Sub Base Platypus Tour

Hear about the RAN's story of torpedoes, submarines, submariners & the men and women who supported them. Tour conducted monthly.

For more information

Sydney Harbour in War and Peace: Bradleys Head Tour

Learn about the naval history of Sydney Harbour from 1788; the earliest defences, role of the Royal Navy, colonial navies and the RAN since 1911.

For more Information

Navy in Sydney: Cruise: West of the Bridge

Learn about Royal Australian Navy activities and support facilities in Sydney Harbour such as Cockatoo and Spectacle Island from 1788 to the present.

For more information

Sydney under Japanese Attack 1942: 80th Anniversary Cruise

This cruise highlights the events of 31 May 1942 when three Japanese midget submarines entered Sydney Harbour to attack Allied warships.

For more information

Honouring
History

Dates and Details on

Tours & Cruises Naval Historical Society of Australia

Brought to you by the Naval Historical Society of Australia

over fifty years as a non-profit organisation